

GIVING CHARITY Day 9

LESSON

During Ramadan, the blessings of zakat (obligatory charity) and sadaqah (voluntary charity) are enhanced, therefore, Muslims increase their charitable contributions during this month.

The act of fasting teaches Muslims to show compassion for the less fortunate and to be mindful of their own blessings.

"The best charity is that given in Ramadan."

Hadith: Tirmidhi 663
